

Parent Video Series + Q&A

Career Conversations

Knowing where to start when it comes to guiding your teenager through subject selection, career conversations and options for life after school can be daunting and confusing. Broken Bay Catholic School Parents has engaged Career Expert, Kathryn Taylor, to create a series of brief videos to help parents get started. These short videos are a must watch for parents of children in years 10, 11 and 12 wondering what's next after school for my child? Click on the images below to watch these clips that will help you get started on the journey.
